Qualification of Directors

All General Members of the Corporation over eighteen (18) years of age shall be eligible for nomination and election to the Board of Directors.

In order to qualify for nomination to the Corporation's Board of Directors, a person must comply with all of the following conditions:

1. be a current General Member in good standing for thirty (30) days;
2. endorse the mission of the Corporation and share the values which it represents;
3. complete the Board nomination form, if there shall be any;
4. read these By-Laws and the Corporation's mission statement;
5. review the Corporation's meeting minutes for the year preceding nomination;
6. know how to locate public documents (Form 990, Articles of Organization) of the Corporation;
7. agree to attend as much as feasible all Board meetings, understanding that missing more than two consecutive meetings means possible removal from the Board as set forth in these By-Laws;
8. keep current on the Corporation by reading the program guide and listening to as many programs as possible;
9. commit to four (4) hours a month volunteering at the Corporation, including Board meetings, committees, outreach, office work, events and fundraising;
10. commit to assisting with all fund drives, including on and off-air;
11. commit to being an active member on at least one Board committee;
12. refrain from using Board affiliation or authority for personal gain or to influence or promote anything other than the Corporation, nor for personal gain or influence within the Corporation;
and
13. agree that the Board shall have no direct or indirect influence over WCUW's on-air programming.
